Major General S. LeRoy Irwin, GSC
Director of Intelligence
General Staff, United States Army
Department of the Army
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Irwin:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of 26 September concerning my recent lecture at the Strategic Intelligence School.

So far as I can determine now, my schedule for 1040 hours on 8 November 1949 will be free, and, in which case, I should be delighted to address the Twelfth Course Class at that time.

Sincerely,

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

I am taking this opportunity to express my appreciation for your recent lecture contribution to the Eleventh Course of the Strategic Intelligence School. It is a pleasure to inform you that your presentation was regarded by students and the School Staff as most outstanding and one of the high-lights of the Course.

The Twelfth Course of the School will commence in November. It is hoped that you may find it convenient to address this Class on 8 November 1949 at 1040 hours.

Should you accede to this request, a member of the School Staff will communicate with your office to effect whatever arrangements you may desire in connection with this presentation.

Sincerely yours,

(Sgd) S. LeROY IRWIN
